

Our Community Room

About Our Community Room

In the 90's I had the opportunity to conduct a tour of our funeral home for mentally handicapped adults. I try to engage groups that come to the funeral home and asked what they thought funerals were for. I was amazed by their simple yet insightful answers. While I knew what we did and why we do it, I was never able to describe it in a concise way. They told me funerals were to say goodbye to the dead person, tell the family you're sorry, and to say a prayer. It occurred to me that this described what we try to do and it all described what we do for all our life events like weddings, baptisms, graduations, etc. We gather family and friends to ponder the changes we are making and we ask God to bless our efforts; then we go out to eat. Funerals are no exception. The comfort of a good meal following the stress of a loss and the ability to relax and have some fun are an important part of recovery. We built the community room and made arrangements with Jim DiFeo Catering to provide luncheons, which are cost affordable to most. The room has a home-like feel, along with a separate entrance and bathrooms. In addition, we make the room available to non-profit groups during less busy times at no cost.

Please enjoy our food and hospitality . -Dave Anthony
